Goodbye to Mrs Oakes and Mrs Rothwell

Today we said good bye to Mrs Oakes who has worked at Threshfield for three and a half years. The children and staff dedicated today's assembly to her and showed their appreciation for all her hard work. She was even given the ultimate award of Threshfield Champ. We wish her every success with her new business in Linton.

Yesterday, we also said good bye to Mrs Rothwell who has been teacher in Year 5/6 for two and a half years. We also had a special assembly to say good bye to her, and thanked her for all her hard work, particularly with Maths.

THRESHFIELD PRIMARY SCHOOL

Welcome to Miss Coulton

We are delighted to be welcoming Miss Coulton in early January. Miss Coulton will be teaching in Kingfishers Class and I'm sure the children, staff and parents will look forward to welcoming her on the 9th January.

Music at Threshfield

Mr Hinchcliffe, our accordion instructor, has been so delighted with the pupils' interest in, and commitment to the accordion that he is continuing to teach accordion on Monday mornings, next term. Not only has the school been filled with the sound of accordion playing but also much loved carols and songs from the nativity. In fact, the pupils have taken every opportunity to share this wonderful Christmas music, performing at Craven Court Shopping Centre, Threshfield Court and the traditional Carol Service at St. Michael's Church, Linton, where they raised £155 for Foundation, a charity supporting homeless people in the Craven area.

Our Nativity, Children of the World, was a huge success and also raised a pleasing £55 which will fund more learning resources in school.

In addition to this, five pupils from Curlews put their accordion practice to good use at the Grassington Dickensian Festival, and in doing so raised £234.94 for Cancer Research.

Thank you

We would like to say a huge thank you to all the pupils and parents who have given cards and presents to staff this Christmas- we really do appreciate your kindness.

Happy Christmas - we wish you all a very happy Christmas and hope you have a peaceful and relaxing time in and amongst the celebrations. We look forward to welcoming you back on 9th January.
